PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Delaware

The Amended and Restated Corporate Bylaws of the Company provide that the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless any present or former officer or director or any officer or director who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent or similar functionary of another corporation, partnership, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, from and against fines, judgments, penalties, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses actually incurred by such person in connection with any suit to which they were or are made, or are threatened to be made, a party, or to which they are a witness without being named a party, if it is determined that he acted in good faith and in a manner that he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any proceeding which is a criminal action, that he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Pursuant to Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (“Delaware Code”), the Company generally has the power to indemnify its present and former directors, officers, employees and agents against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement incurred by them in connection with any suit (other than a suit by or in the right of the Company) to which they are, or are threatened to be made, a party by reason of their serving in such positions, or is or was serving at the Company’s request in such positions for another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, so long as they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action, they had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. Section 145 of the Delaware Code further provides that in connection with the defense or settlement of any action by or in the right of the corporation, a Delaware corporation may indemnify its present and former directors, officers, employees and agents against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by them if, in connection with the matters in issue, they acted in good faith, in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made with respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged liable to the corporation unless the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought approves such indemnification. The statute also expressly provides that the power to indemnify authorized thereby is not exclusive of any rights granted under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

According to the Amended and Restated Corporate Bylaws of the Company and Section 145 of the Delaware Code, the Company has the power to purchase and maintain insurance for its present and former directors, officers, employees and agents. The above discussion of the Company’s Amended and Restated Corporate Bylaws and of Section 145 of the Delaware Code is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by such Amended and Restated Corporate Bylaws and the Delaware Code.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Company has been informed that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

West Virginia

Pilgrim’s Pride Corporation of West Virginia, Inc., is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia. The Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of Pilgrim’s Pride Corporation of West Virginia, Inc. provide that the corporation shall indemnify directors and officers to the extent permitted, and in the manner provided by the West Virginia Business Corporation Act (“WVBCA”).

The WVBCA empowers a corporation to indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because he is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if: (1) (A) he conducted himself in good faith; (B) he reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in his official capacity with the corporation, that his conduct was in its best interests and (ii) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests; and (C) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; or (2) he engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the articles of incorporation. A corporation may not indemnify a director (1) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, except for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding or (2) in connection with any other proceeding with respect to conduct for which he was adjudged liable on the basis that he received financial benefit to which he was not entitled, whether or not involving action in his official capacity. A corporation must indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he was a party because he is or was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the proceeding. Under the WVBCA, a corporation may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding if: (1) the director furnishes the corporation a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the relevant standard of conduct; and (2) the director furnishes the corporation a written undertaking to repay the advance if the director is not entitled to mandatory indemnification under the WVBCA and it is ultimately determined that he did not meet the relevant standard of conduct. A corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer of the corporation to the same extent as to a director. A corporation may also purchase and maintain on behalf of a director or officer of the corporation insurance against liabilities incurred in such capacities, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against the same liability under the WVBCA.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;

(3) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering;

(4) that, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser, if the registrant is subject to Rule 430C, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness; provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use; and

(5) that, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) the portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of Form S-4 within one business day of receipt of such request and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(e) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

Re: Registration Statement on Form S-4

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have served as West Virginia counsel to Pilgrim's Pride Corporation of West Virginia, Inc. (the "Guarantor"), a West Virginia corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pilgrim's Pride Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company," and together with the Guarantor, the "Issuers"), in connection with the filing of the Registration Statement on Form S-4 (as it may be amended from time to time, the "Registration Statement") with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), relating to the registration under the Act of $500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Company's 7.875% Senior Notes due 2018 (the "Exchange Notes") and the related guarantees of the Exchange Notes by the Guarantor (the "Exchange Guarantees"), to be issued under the indenture dated as of December 14, 2010, between the Company and The Bank of New York Mellon, as trustee (the "Indenture"). The Exchange Notes and the Exchange Guarantees are to be offered by the Company in exchange for a like principal amount of the Company's issued and outstanding 7.875% Senior Notes due 2018 and related guarantees of the Outstanding Notes by the Guarantors (the "Outstanding Guarantees").

As counsel to the Guarantor, we have examined an executed copy (except that with respect to the Exchange Guarantees we have reviewed a form thereof contained in the Indenture) of each of the following documents: (a) the Outstanding Guarantees, the form of Exchange Guarantees and the Indenture (collectively, the "Transactional Documents") and (b) each of the following organizational documents of Guarantor: Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation dated September 26, 2011 and Bylaws of the Guarantor; Certificate of Secretary of Pilgrim's Pride Corporation of West Virginia, Inc. dated October 20, 2011, and exhibits thereto (the "Secretary's Certificate"); and the Certificate of Existence issued by the Secretary of State of the State of West Virginia dated October 19, 2011 (the "Certificate of Existence," along with the Secretary's Certificate and the other documents referenced in (b) above, are collectively referred to herein as the "Organizational Documents"). We also have examined such other instruments and records and inquired into such other factual matters and matters of law as we deem necessary or pertinent to the formulation of the opinions hereinafter expressed.

In our examination, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals and the conformity with authentic original documents of all documents submitted to us as copies. We have relied upon certificates of governmental officials and certificates and communications with appropriate representatives of the Guarantor (including the Certificate of Existence and the Secretary's Certificate) and upon the representations made in or pursuant to the Transactional Documents by the parties thereto, with our reliance limited to the factual matters disclosed in such certificates, communications and representations.

In rendering the opinions expressed below, we have assumed, with respect to all of the documents referred to in this letter, that (except to the extent set forth in our opinions expressed below as to the Guarantor):

- (i) (a) such documents have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by all of the parties to such documents, and (b) such documents constitute legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligations of all of the parties to such documents;
- (ii) all signatories to such documents have been duly authorized; and
- (iii) all of the parties to such documents are duly organized and validly existing and have the power and authority (corporate and other) to execute and deliver, and to perform their obligations under, such documents.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing and subject also to the comments, assumptions, exceptions and qualifications set forth below, and having considered such questions of law as we have deemed necessary as a basis for the opinions expressed below, we are of the opinion that:

1. The Guarantor is a corporation validly existing and in good standing as a corporation under the laws of the State of West Virginia and is duly licensed or qualified and in good standing in the State of West Virginia.
2. The Guarantor has the corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the Transactional Documents, and to observe and perform all the matters and things therein provided for. The execution and delivery of the Transactional Documents by the Guarantor does not, nor will the observance or performance by the Guarantor of any of the matters or things therein provided for, violate any provision of the Organizational Documents or any order, authorization, consent, license, law, rule or regulation of any West Virginia state court or any West Virginia governmental department, agency or regulatory body.

3. The execution, delivery and performance of the Transactional Documents by the Guarantor has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action of the Guarantor and the Transactional Documents (other than the Exchange Guarantees) have been duly executed and delivered by the Guarantor.

The foregoing opinions are subject to the following comments, assumptions, exceptions and qualifications:

(A) In rendering the opinion set forth in paragraph 1 above as to existence and good standing, this firm has relied solely on the Certificate of Existence.

(B) We are admitted to practice in the State of West Virginia. This opinion letter is limited in all respects to the federal laws of the United States of America and the West Virginia Laws of the State of West Virginia, and we assume no responsibility as to the applicability or the effect of any other laws.

(C) No opinion is expressed herein with respect to any laws, ordinances, statutes or regulations of any county, city or other political subdivision of the State of West Virginia. We express no opinion with respect to the effect, compliance or application of the securities laws of the United States or the State of West Virginia or any other state.

(D) Our opinion is subject to (i) laws relating to usury, bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or transfer or other similar laws relating to or affecting the rights of creditors and (ii) principles of equity (regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law), including, without limitation (a) the possible unavailability of specific performance, injunctive relief or any other equitable remedy and (b) concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing.

(E) This firm expresses no opinion with respect to the enforceability of provisions in the Transactional Documents.

This opinion letter is limited to the matters stated herein, and no opinion is implied or may be inferred beyond the matters expressly stated. The law firm of Baker & McKenzie LLP may rely upon the opinions rendered herein in providing its opinion to the Issuers dated the date hereof in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Registration Statement. We hereby consent to the filing of our opinion as herein set forth as an exhibit incorporated by reference to the Registration Statement and to the use of our name under the caption "Legal Matters" in the prospectus and any prospectus supplement forming a part of the Registration Statement.
