Joint Press Release Issued by Pilgrim's Pride Corporation and Gold Kist Inc. on December 4, 2006

Pilgrim's Pride and Gold Kist Announce Merger Agreement

Transaction Valued at $1.1 Billion or $21.00 per Gold Kist Share

Combined Company Positioned to Become World's Leading Chicken Producer

$50 Million of Annual Cost Savings Anticipated

Pittsburg, Texas and Atlanta, Georgia – December 4, 2006 – Pilgrim's Pride Corporation (NYSE: PPC) and Gold Kist Inc. (NASDAQ: GKIS) today announced that the two companies have entered into a definitive merger agreement under which Pilgrim's Pride will acquire all of the outstanding shares of Gold Kist common stock for $21.00 per share in cash. The transaction, which was unanimously approved by the boards of directors of both Pilgrim's Pride and Gold Kist, has a total equity value of approximately $1.1 billion, plus the assumption of approximately $144 million of Gold Kist's debt.

Together, Pilgrim's Pride and Gold Kist will create the world's leading chicken company in terms of production and the third-largest U.S. meat protein company by revenues. The combined company will have a broad geographic reach and customer base, while maintaining a balanced portfolio of fresh chicken and value-added products. In particular, the enhanced geographic diversification will enable the new Pilgrim's Pride to compete more efficiently both in the U.S and internationally.

"This is a momentous day for both companies and for the chicken industry," said Lonnie "Bo" Pilgrim, chairman of Pilgrim's Pride. "We believe the combination of these two great companies will result in substantial value creation for our respective stockholders, employees, business partners and other constituencies."

Added O.B. Goolsby, Jr., Pilgrim's Pride president and chief executive officer: "We are excited about the opportunity to begin realizing the substantial benefits that will result from the combination between Pilgrim's Pride and Gold Kist. The combined company will be well-positioned to provide even better service to its customers. We look forward to welcoming Gold Kist's employees and contract growers to the Pilgrim's Pride family so they can participate in the long-term growth opportunities of the combined company."

Pilgrim's Pride expects to achieve approximately $50 million of annualized synergies, primarily from the optimization of production and distribution facilities and cost savings in purchasing, production, logistics and SG&A. Pilgrim's Pride expects the acquisition will be accretive to the company's diluted earnings per share after the first full year of operations. Pilgrim's Pride believes that the combined company will have a strong financial position and substantial cash flow, enabling it to consistently reduce debt and return to historical debt levels.

"After careful consideration, the special committee of independent directors, as well as our entire board, determined that the Pilgrim's Pride enhanced offer is in the best interests of our shareholders, employees, growers and customers," said A.D. Frazier, chairman of Gold Kist. "Since becoming a public company more than two years ago, Gold Kist has made significant progress in achieving its business goals. We look forward to working with the Pilgrim's Pride board and management on a smooth integration, and we recommend that all stockholders embrace this transaction by tendering their shares into the premium offer."

“This transaction will position the combined company for long-term growth and leadership in our industry,” said John Bekkers, president and chief executive officer of Gold Kist. “The collective talents and expertise of our employees and growers, along with our combined customer relationships, will represent a new standard in the chicken business and make Pilgrim’s Pride the preeminent industry player.”

The Pilgrim’s Pride offer represents an approximately 62% premium over Gold Kist’s closing stock price on August 18, 2006, the last day of trading before Pilgrim’s Pride notified Gold Kist’s board of directors in a public letter that it was offering to purchase the company.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Pilgrim’s Pride will amend its tender offer to increase its offer price to $21.00 per share and Gold Kist will amend its Schedule 14D-9 to include the Gold Kist board’s recommendation that Gold Kist stockholders tender their shares to Pilgrim’s Pride pursuant to the amended tender offer. A revised offer to purchase will be distributed to Gold Kist stockholders and the scheduled expiration date for the amended tender offer is 5:00 p.m., New York City Time, December 27, 2006, unless extended. The offer and related transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions. As previously announced, the transaction has received early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976.

Forward-Looking Statements:

Statements contained in this press release that state the intentions, plans, hopes, beliefs, anticipations, expectations or predictions of the future of Pilgrim’s Pride Corporation and its management, including as to the expected benefits of the proposed transaction with Gold Kist, are forward-looking statements. It is important to note that the actual results could differ materially from those projected in such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in such forward-looking statements include: matters affecting the poultry industry generally, including fluctuations in the commodity prices of feed ingredients, chicken and turkey; additional outbreaks of avian influenza or other diseases, either in our own flocks or elsewhere, affecting our ability to conduct our operations and/or demand for our poultry products; contamination of our products, which has recently and can in the future lead to product liability claims and product recalls; exposure to risks related to product liability, product recalls, property damage and injuries to persons, for which insurance coverage is expensive, limited and potentially inadequate; changes in laws or regulations affecting our operations or the application thereof; competitive factors and pricing pressures or the loss of one or more of our largest customers; currency exchange rate fluctuations, trade barriers, exchange controls, expropriation and other risks associated with foreign operations; management of our cash resources, particularly in light of our leverage, and restrictions imposed by and as a result of, our leverage; inability to complete the proposed acquisition or effectively integrate Gold Kist's business or realize the associated cost savings and operating synergies currently anticipated; and the impact of uncertainties of litigation as well as other risks described under "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K and subsequent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Pilgrim's Pride Corporation undertakes no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Letter from Pilgrim's Pride Corporation to its Employees issued December 4, 2006

December 4, 2006

Dear Pilgrim's Pride Employees:

I want to share with you some exciting news about our company. Today, Pilgrim's Pride Corporation and Gold Kist Inc. announced that the two companies have entered into a definitive merger agreement to create the world's leading chicken company.

Under the terms of the agreement, Pilgrim's Pride will acquire all of the outstanding shares of Gold Kist common stock for $21 per share in cash. The transaction, which was unanimously approved by the boards of directors of both companies, has a total equity value of approximately $1.1 billion, plus the assumption of $144 million of Gold Kist's debt. The press release announcing the agreement is attached.

We believe the combination of Pilgrim's Pride and Gold Kist will generate substantial benefits for the employees, customers, business partners and shareholders of our two companies. By combining as one company, we will be able to expand our geographic reach and customer base, allowing us to compete more efficiently and provide even better service to customers. Over the long-term, we believe this combination will result in greater career opportunities for you as we move forward and grow together. I hope you will join me in welcoming Gold Kist's employees and contract growers to the Pilgrim's Pride family so they can participate in the long-term growth opportunities of the combined company.

However, it is important to note that the merger agreement is subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions. Until the merger is officially completed, Pilgrim's Pride and Gold Kist remain separate companies, so it's business as usual. We must all remain focused on continuing to do our jobs to the best of our abilities and providing outstanding service to our customers.

As we move forward, we will make every effort to keep you informed of new developments regarding the merger and subsequent integration process.

On behalf of our entire management team, thank you for your continued dedication and support. With this acquisition, we look forward to an even brighter future for Pilgrim's Pride.

Sincerely,

O.B. Goolsby, Jr.
President and CEO

Letter from Pilgrim's Pride Corporation to its Customers issued December 4, 2006

December 4, 2006

Dear Pilgrim's Pride Customers:

Today, Pilgrim's Pride Corporation and Gold Kist Inc. announced that the two companies have entered into a definitive merger agreement to create the world's leading chicken company in terms of production and the third largest U.S. meat protein company by revenues. The press release announcing the agreement is attached.

We believe the combination of Pilgrim's Pride and Gold Kist will generate substantial benefits for the customers of our two companies. By combining, we will be able to offer you expanded geographic reach, and our collective resources will allow us to provide better customer service, an even broader product line, additional R&D resources, and broader marketing support.

As a valued customer, you can rest assured that steps are being taken to maintain continuity during this transition. Until the transaction closes, each company will continue to operate its respective sales force independently. You will experience no disruption in supply and you can continue to expect the same high quality service that you have grown accustomed to from Pilgrim's Pride. This combination is about making a better customer experience in every way.

It is important to note that the merger agreement is subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions. Until the merger is officially completed, Pilgrim's Pride and Gold Kist remain separate companies.

As we move forward, we will make every effort to keep you informed of new developments regarding the merger and subsequent integration process.

We will be contacting you as soon as possible to discuss today's announcement. On behalf of our entire management team, thank you for your continued dedication and support. With this acquisition, we look forward to continuing our positive working relationship with you.

Sincerely,

O.B. Goolsby, Jr.
