Pilgrim's Pride Voluntarily Recalls Buffalo Style Chicken Wings for Undeclared Allergens

PITTSBURG, Texas, June 10 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Pilgrim's Pride Corporation (Pink Sheets: PGPDQ) today announced it is voluntarily recalling approximately 608,000 pounds of buffalo style chicken wings produced for The Kroger Co. because they may contain undeclared dairy, soy, and wheat allergens.

The recalled product is Kroger Fully Cooked Buffalo Style Wings, UPC number 11110 97158, packaged in two-pound bags, all code dates. These products were sold in Kroger's family of stores nationwide, except for the Fred Meyer, QFC, and Ralphs banner stores. Consumers should check their freezers for this recalled product and return it to the Kroger store for a full refund.

No illnesses associated with these products have been reported to Pilgrim's Pride. Anyone who is concerned about an allergic reaction should contact a physician.

Consumers with questions regarding the recall may contact Kroger toll-free at (800) 632-6900.
